3.2 Appoint the Company's Chief Executive Officer, persons with power of management, and advisors as well as determine their remuneration and employment conditions.

3.3 Consider and approve:

- (1) Vision, mission, policies and business strategies of SCBX Group;
- (2) Annual business and budget plans;
- (3) Quarterly, semi-annual and annual financial statements;
- (4) Interim dividend payments;
- (5) Acquisition, establishment, disposal or discontinuation of any significant assets or businesses of the Company and its subsidiaries;
- (6) Execution of connect transactions of which size is material to the Company and its subsidiaries;
- (7) Issuance of financial instruments or any other securities of the Company;
- (8) Key policies of SCBX Group such as the Corporate Governance Policy, the Risk Management Policy, the Human Resources Management Policy and Plan, and the Data Protection Policy;
- (9) Statements to be released to the public regarding significant policies or strategies of SCBX Group;
- (10) Changes to any powers and authority previously delegated by the Board to other persons; and
- (11) Any significant changes within the organization.

3.4 Delegate certain powers and authority to the Board committees or the management (where appropriate) from time to time.

4. Composition

4.1 The Board consists of independent directors, non-executive directors, and executive directors according to the number of seats approved by the meeting of shareholders but shall not be less than five. At least three directors or one-third of the total directors (whichever is higher) shall be independent directors.

4.2 The Board must consist of a comprehensive and diverse mix of experience, skills, knowledge and abilities that are appropriate to the size, complexity, business model, and risk profile of the business, as well as strategies and long-term business operations and in line with the business directions of the group. There shall be at least one independent director with knowledge and experience adequate for the review of financial statements and at least one director with IT-related knowledge or experience. For the financial business group with a large number of subsidiaries undertaking technology-related business, the Board should then have more members with expertise in technology.

4.3 Directors concurrently holding directorship in both SCBX and SCB must constitute a minority of SCB Board of Directors as stipulated by the regulations governing complicated financial business groups.

(Translation)

4.4 The Board shall elect an independent director or a non-executive director to serve as the Chairman of the Board. In the regard, the Chairman of the Board must not concurrently be the Chairman of Board of Directors of any financial institutions as stipulated by the regulations governing complicated financial business groups

4.5 The Board may appoint a director or directors as vice chairman or vice chairmen of the Board with the authority and duties as assigned by the Chairman of the Board.

5. Term of Office

5.1 One-third of the total directors shall retire at each annual general meeting of shareholders whereby the directors who have been in office for the longest period will retire. If the number of directors to retire from office is not divisible by three, the number nearest to one-third shall be applied. However, retired directors may be re-elected.

5.2 The office term of independent directors is limited to a period of nine consecutive years, inclusive of their tenure as independent directors of companies in SCBX Financial Group.

6. Nomination and Appointment of Directors

Individuals nominated for directorship shall meet the qualification requirements stipulated by laws and possess knowledge and expertise in three aspects: 1) knowledge, expertise, or experience in macro-level management, 2) knowledge, expertise, or experience in specialized fields relevant to the Company's businesses such as technology (in the fields of, for example, cyber technology, financial technology, digital assets, and digital platforms), investment and new business development, offshore investment and business management, accounting, finance, economics, and business-specific laws, and 3) knowledge, expertise, or experience in other fields such as risk management, corporate governance, social responsibility, and sustainability (ESG). Furthermore, in nominating an individual as a director, the Board shall take into account the qualifications of such individual in terms of ability to contribute to the greater prudence of the Board, ability to make sound business judgment, strategic thinking ability, seasoned leadership, advanced level of professional expertise, integrity, including other desired personal attributes.

The Nomination, Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee is in charge of screening the qualified candidates for directorship based on the nominations submitted by shareholders and directors and with consideration to the directors' pool, and will subsequently propose the vetted nominations to the Board and/or shareholders (as applicable) for election.

7. Directorship Positions in Other Companies/Entities

7.1 A director can serve as the chairman of the board and/or executive director of no more than three other business groups (apart from his/her position in SCBX Financial Group). If any company does not have a business group, that company, itself, will be considered as a business group.

7.2 A director can serve as a director of no more than five companies listed on the domestic and overseas stock exchanges. If the company that such director serves is a listed company, it shall be counted as one listed company, out of the five listed companies.

(Translation)

Directors are required to report their incumbency in other companies or entities and each change thereto to the Nomination, Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee and the Board.

8. Director Development

Orientation sessions are arranged for all new directors to provide them with guidance and briefings that are useful for the fulfilment of their duties. The Chairman of the Board, directors and senior executives of the Company also join the orientation sessions to share information about the vision, strategies, key business targets, and performance highlights of SCBX Group as well as desired practices and conducts applicable to directors of the Company. Directors will be provided with continuous development opportunities to enhance their knowledge.

9. Board Meetings

9.1 Board meetings shall be held at least six times each year and at least once every three months. If deemed appropriate by the Chairman of the Board or a person delegated by the Chairman of the Board, the Board meetings may be arranged electronically to facilitate the meeting attendance by all directors. The procedures of such e-meetings shall be in accordance with applicable regulations, laws and rules.

9.2 At each Board meeting, at least one-half of the total directors shall attend the meeting to constitute a quorum.

9.3 Directors shall attend at least 75 percent of the total Board meetings held each year unless there is any justifiable reason and necessity.

9.4 A notice of Board meeting, meeting agenda, and supporting documents shall be sent to all directors at least five business days prior to the meeting date, unless an urgent meeting is required to protect the Company's rights or benefits, so that directors have sufficient time to study the information.

9.5 At Board meetings, at least two-thirds of all directors should be present during the voting procedure.

9.6 Decisions of the Board meetings shall be made by a majority of votes cast by directors present at such meetings unless applicable legal provisions concerning such voting stipulate otherwise. Each director shall have one vote. In case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall exercise a casting vote.

9.7 Directors having direct and/or indirect vested interests in a given matter shall have no right to participate in the decision-making or voting on such matter and shall not take part or be involved in such matter. They are also required to declare the grounds for such conflict of interest to the Board meeting prior to the meeting commencement.
